

AUSTRALIAN

TRAVELLER

HONESTLY AUSTRALIAN

1000

AWESOME PLACES

you should definitely be spending more time in!

THIS COULD BE YOU!

9 771832 576001
MAY/JUNE/JULY 2018 AUSTR $9.95 NZ $10.90 INC GST

ADELAIDE'S BUZZY EAST END | THE BEST-KEPT SECRET IN WA
IPSWICH FINDS ITS COOL | WHY THE RIVERINA IS ON THE RISE

1000

PLACES TO LINGER LONGER

There are ENDLESS REASONS why these STUNNING DESTINATIONS are begging for a closer look; so HANG OUT, RELAX and have some fun.

8

CABARITA BEACH, NSW

The Tweed Coast has always been a favourite for holidaymakers in the know, but in 2015 it became a truly covered destination when Halcyon House opened at Cabarita Beach. This luxury boutique stay gave new life to the run-down 1960s Hideaway motel, with a complete makeover: breathtaking interiors by Anna Spiro (pictured), a fabulous on-site restaurant Paper Daisy, a light and breezy day spa, old-fashioned service that saw visitors flocking here from across the country. But those who knew Cabarita before the Halcyon, in the halcyon days, know that it's always been a little pocket of paradise, bordered by a nature reserve, lake and sugar-white beaches. And it's just a bonus that there's now a pretty place to lay your head at night.

PENGUIN, TAS

What's in a name? Well, a lot for this small Tasmanian town. Sitting on the shores of Bass Strait on the state's north-west coast, Penguin is a quaint seaside town with scenic walking trails, Tasmania's largest undercover markets (held every Sunday), and their very own 'Big Thing' – a three-metre-tall penguin. But it's the real thing that makes this town so special; every year from September to March fairy penguins come ashore to breed at a number of rookeries located along the coast, and they can be spotted each night at nearby viewing platforms easily accessed from Penguin, including Lilloco and Burnie.

